COLLECTION'S HISTORY

A true ode to nature. Water lily, corn, and wood reveal brilliantly their preciousness of their fibres in bewitching creations. How can we overlook the finesse of this marquetry, with its nuanced, sometimes graduated and metallic shades, the remarkable metamorphosis of corn, this incredible weave of wood, or this water lily in herbarium form? Entirely cut and meticulously assembled or wouen by hand, these unique fibres form an exceptional composition with harmonies made possible by venerable know-how.
